By Wilmer Cave Wright, Ph.D.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF GREEK
BRYN MAWR COLLEGE

$1.50

This volume affords a general survey of the whole field of Greek literature, from Homer to Julian. It is written rather from the literary than the philological standpoint, and contains such helpful features as numerous parallels quoted from English literature, lists of standard translations, and references to modern essays dealing with the Greek masterpieces. It is a book which will appeal both to the general reader, and to the college student who wishes to realize intelligently the significance and relations to the whole of the classic masterpieces he is reading.
